ASSOCIATION OF ORANGE COUNTY DEPUTY DISTRICT ATTORNEYS

The Association of Orange County Deputy District Attorneys (AOCDDA) is a nonprofit organization open to all persons employed as Deputy District Attorneys for the County of Orange. Membership meetings are held quarterly, with approximately 145 Deputy District Attorneys currently members of the AOCDDA. At each meeting, members review the outstanding achievements and accomplishments of prosecutors within the Orange County DA's office.

The purpose of the AOCDDA is to provide the Deputy District Attorneys of the Orange County District Attorney's office with a means for organizing for purposes of promoting camaraderie, providing support and improving the general welfare of said Deputies within the office. The AOCDDA's Civic Action Committee participates in the political and judicial campaigns of individuals for elective office, and participates in the legislative process on those matters that affect the criminal justice system.

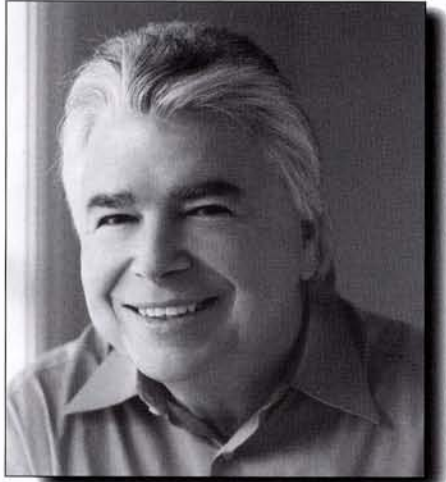

Anyone interested in obtaining additional information about the AOCDDA may contact Jessica House by writing to the AOCDDA at P.O. Box 17777, Irvine, CA 92623.

CELTIC BAR ASSOCIATION

The goals of the Celtic Bar are to promote camaraderie amongst membership, civility and professionalism within the Orange County legal community, and a greater awareness of the Celtic culture and history, particularly its contribution to the law. (Singing, step dancing and your own kilt are optional.)

We meet on the third Tuesday of each month

Wylie A. Aitken

at Muldoon's Irish Pub, through the graciousness of one of our founding members, Ronald O'Schwartz, located near Fashion Island at 202 Newport Center Drive. (949.640.4110).

We have organized trips to Ireland, to Celtic Spain, to the contemporary Irish Comedy Stella by Starlight, and to Riverdance at the Orange County Performing Arts Center. Guest speakers at our events have included Kerry Kennedy Cuomo, human rights activist and daughter of Robert Kennedy, and the prominent Irish playwright Bernard Farrell, and our own Judge McDonald, Ret.

There are seven separate Celtic nations, all of which are connected to one another by common history and culture. These seven nations are Wales, Scotland, Ireland, the Isle of Man (if your ancestors are from Man, your dues are waived for the first year), Galicia (in Spain), Brittany (in France), and Cornwall (in England). The Celtic peoples are known for their outgoing nature and their love of written and spoken word. Not surprisingly, many descendants of Celtic immigrants have entered the legal profession. While there are many Irish-American lawyer's groups in major cities throughout the United States, we believe that the CBA is the first attempt to gather all the Celtic clans in a single legal organization.

Over 300 lawyers and judges have rallied to our cause. We would like to have you come aboard as well. One does not have to be of Celtic descent to join the CBA. On the contrary, all we ask is that you be a member of the OCBA, have an outgoing nature and support for our organization's goals. (Oh yes, we do have modest annual dues!) For further information, please contact CBA President Wylie A. Aitken at Aitken, Aitken & Cohn, 3 Imperial Promenade, Suite 800, Santa Ana, CA 92707, 714.434.1424 or email wylie@aitkenlaw.com.
